

P. L. Maughn was a Salt Lake visitor Monday.

Joseph H. Storrs spent Thursday in Storrs on business.

Mrs. Libbie Adkins is quite ill with a touch of pneumonia.

Messrs. Charles Logie and Charles Thorne were Provo visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Durrant went to Salt Lake Wednesday for a brief visit with friends.

Cabinet photos $1.99 doz.; postcards 99c doz., at Joy's Studio, Monday.

Mrs. Arvilla Zabriske of Provo is here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Robinson.

Mrs. John Woodhouse of Lehi spent Sunday here with her daughter, Mrs. Bert Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Clayton are rejoicing over the arrival of a ten-pound baby boy, born Tuesday.

George A. Clark and A. B. Ballantyne, both of Provo, visited Dr. C. A. Clark Wednesday and Thursday on a dry farm proposition.

We offer you 50 Ladies' Overshirts, worth $4.50 to $10.00, for the small sum of $2.00 each. They are a little narrow, but splendid for girls. Chipman's.

Messrs. R. L. Harding and Burnett Culbertson of Provo were American Fork visitors Wednesday.

John Roberts, who suffered a paralytic stroke some time ago, is feeling very much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thorne and babe went to Salt Lake Friday to spend a few days with friends.

David Pratt Jr. of Salt Lake was the guest of American Fork friends the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Annie Green spent the week-end in Draper, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Florence Dunyon.

Next Saturday at the Orient, "The Broken Coin." The excitement gets greater than ever. See the great escape from the Apaches.

The sophomore class enjoyed an outing Wednesday evening in the form of a sleigh ride. All concerned had the jolliest kind of a time.

Miss Myrta Wootton came down from Salt Lake Friday and spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wootton.

We have just 20 Ladies' Winter Suits left. They are beauties. You can buy them now at ONE-HALF PRICE—$20.00 for $10.00, $15.00 for $7.50, $10.00 for $5.00, at Chipman's Big Red Store.

Mr. and Mrs. James Woodhouse and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Turner of Lehi were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nephil Howe Sunday. Messdames Woodhouse and Turner are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Howe.

The members of the former Bromley Orchestra met and reorganized this week, and will make their first appearance since their reorganization at the Old Folks' entertainment next Wednesday.

One of the most successful functions of the week was the one given by the firemen in the high school gym Thursday evening. The time passed quickly in music and dancing, and refreshments were served.

PETE VOSNOS
AMERICAN FORK

vs.
FRED SMITH
LEHI

AT LEHI
MONDAY NIGHT

SAN TOX COLD TABLETS

Will break up your cold. They work like magic.

You can obtain them only at the

BRIGGS PHARMACY
COMPANY

THE SAN-TOX STORE

American Fork, Utah.

Telephone 99.

Clyde Crookston was a Provo visitor Wednesday.

Cabinet photos $1.99 doz.; postcards 99c doz., at Joy's Studio, Monday.

Miss Lois Smith spent Wednesday in Salt Lake, the guest of Mrs. Le. Hickman.

Mrs. Will Bullock presented her husband this week with a fine baby boy.

Don't forget the Saturday matinee at the Orient. Roars of laughter for the children.

Mrs. May Toone of Salt Lake is visiting her father, W. B. Smith, and family this week.

Aunt Melissa Mott met with a slight accident this week by slipping on the icy sidewalk, shaking her up considerably and confining her to her bed for two days.

John Hunter has gone back to his old job, manager of the Chipman lumber yard. He is glad to get back and will be glad to greet all his friends at his old stand.

H. Wisener Hammond, the mining engineer who, a few months ago, passed so favorably on American Fork Canyon for W. H. Child & Co., is located for the winter at Hotel Seville, Twenty-ninth and Madison avenue, New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Bradley moved to Eureka this week. Mr. Bradley being transferred to that district of the Utah Power and Light Company. His place is being filled in the local office by Mr. Armstrong of Provo.

Mr. and Mrs. Tempest Robinson and family arrived here Saturday from Shelley, Ida., for a visit with Mr. Robinson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson, after which they will go to Midvale, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Racker and Mrs. W. E. Whipple of Lehi were the guests of Mrs. Delbert Lee Sunday. Mrs. Lee was formerly Miss La Rue Racker, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Racker.

You ought to see those $1.85 Ladies' Waists that are being sold by Chipman's for 99c each. $2.50 quality for $1.98.

A prettily appointed dinner was that given by Mrs. W. A. Devey Sunday complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. John Rosell of Salt Lake. Those present besides the guests of honor were: Mr. and Mrs. Fon Groen, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wing, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hollindrake, Mrs. E. H. Boley and Elisha and Myron Boley.

The following American Fork people attended a house party given by Mr. and Mrs. Hyrum Helselt in Provo Friday night: Messrs. and Mesdames Wallace Larson, Vern Larson, John Telfs, Otto Nielsen, Will Larson, Niels Nelson, James Adams, Mrs. Charlotte Featherstone and Leslie Larson. The trip to the canyon was made in sleighs.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Rockwood left Tuesday for their home in Iona, Ida., after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Smith. Mrs. Rockwood is a daughter of Mrs. Smith. Mr. Rockwood is a son of the late Bishop Rockwood of Iona, and is a prosperous young dry farmer of Idaho.

Dr. and Mrs. Atlantic Christensen entertained a number of their friends last Friday and Saturday evenings. The guests of Friday evening were: Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bezzant, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Preston, Mr. and Mrs. Peirson, and the Misses Ida and Manda Chipman and Mae Hanks. At the affair of Saturday evening were: Messrs. and Mesdames James Chipman Jr., William Chipman, Arthur Adams, J. R. Hindley, Virgil Groo, James Brown, Washburn Chipman, Mrs. Thomas Dolan, the Misses Ida and Manda Chipman and Mae Hanks and Dr. J. L. Huchel. The rooms were tastefully but simply decorated with ferns, colias and geraniums. Each party was altogether a very informal affair. At 11 o'clock a dainty supper was served. What was the feature of the evenings' entertainment, and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Dolan and Mark Bezzant.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson returned Saturday from a short visit in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hutchings had as their guest Monday Mr. Hutchings' sister, Mrs. Roy Fox, of Lehi.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Robinson entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Storrs of Payson.

One-half mutton for 10c lb. Sanitary Meat & Grocery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Chipman entertained at dinner Sunday the following Pleasant Grove people: Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bezzant, Mr. and Mrs. McGee Bullock and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gammett.

Robert Edson and William S. Hart will appear in a grand drama of the Golden West, entitled "On the Night Stage," at the Orient next Wednesday and Thursday only.

Mrs. Jacob Greenwood returned Tuesday from a brief visit in Salt Lake with her daughters, Mrs. Emma Anderson and Mrs. Lena Henrold.

Mrs. Bryant Stringham and children of Storrs arrived here Sunday for a visit with Mrs. Stringham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Chipman.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Brown had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rollo of Salt Lake and Mr. R. R. Fenn of Midvale. Mrs. Rollo is a sister and Mr. Fenn is a brother of Mrs. Brown.

Tim Smith and E. J. Wild came down from the canyon Monday evening to attend a stockholders' meeting of the Whirlwind Mining and Milling Company.

Mrs. W. C. Boley and Mrs. Samuel Greenwood spent Sunday in Salt Lake, the guests of Mrs. David Smith and Mrs. J. W. Carter, who is visiting in Salt Lake for a few months.

The telephone employees, accompanied by Miss Fern Thornton and sister Chipman, were entertained at a sleigh-riding party Saturday evening by Myron Chipman.

P. Drew Clarke of Magrath, Canada, is here visiting at the homes of Postmaster James H. Clarke and Mrs. Ann Chipman. Mr. Clarke will leave January 28th for a mission to the northern states.

The Chipman Mercantile Company has been successful in securing the valuable services of Mary Mandley of Lehi. She has had many years of experience as a saleslady, both buying and selling merchandise. She has been employed this last winter by the Z. C. M. I. of Salt Lake City and comes well recommended. We certainly wish her success in her new position.

15c and 20c new Spring Embroideries at Chipman's, any width, only 10c per yard.

Mr. and Mrs. John Binns were pleasantly surprised at their home in the Second ward Thursday evening by a number of friends. The usual parlor games were played and an appetizing supper was served.

Jesse N. Nelson and wife and granddaughter, Ruth Cunningham, of Pocatello, Ida., visited friends in this city Monday, returning to Idaho Tuesday morning. Mr. Nelson has recently undergone a serious operation at the Holy Cross Hospital in Salt Lake for gall stones and appendicitis.

Kate Groo, who has been studying the violin under the direction of Prof. George E. Skelton of Salt Lake City for the past nine months, went to Salt Lake Thursday evening to take part in a violin recital given by the pupils of Professor Skelton at the Consolidated Music Company Recital Hall. Miss Kate rendered the selection, "Barcarolle," by Offenbach.

"On the Night Stage," the hair-raising cowboy drama no one should miss, Wednesday and Thursday at the Orient. Usual prices.

Mrs. William Chipman entertained on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Thomas Dolan of Erie, Pa., who is here visiting her sister, Mrs. James Chipman Jr. The house was decorated in pink and green, and the pink idea was carried out in all of the details of the entertainment. A large vase of pink carnations adorned the mantel. The score and place cards were prettily hand-painted with the pink color scheme predominating. About forty guests partook of a delicious buffet luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Firmage were exceedingly surprised Sunday morning by all their children coming from Salt Lake on the 10:30 train. The surprise was in the form of a reunion. Three of their sons being managers of the Golden Rule chain of stores, had met in Salt Lake at the convention and banquet there of their company and the other out-of-town children being communicated with, had all met in Salt Lake Sunday morning. They spent the day in a social time, also talking about business and old times and cheering their parents. Dinner was served at 2 o'clock. The table was decorated with white and red carnations and in the evening they all returned home, acknowledging they had all had a most splendid time. Those present were: William A. Firmage, from Rawlins, Wyo.; David P. Firmage, from Heber; Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Jones, Salt Lake; Edwin A. Firmage, Park City; Andrew A. Firmage and wife, Salt Lake; John F. Firmage, American Fork.

We Are Out to Break All Sales Records this Year

WE ARE GOING TO KEEP THE CUSTOMERS COMING AND THE MERCHANDISE GOING!

Watch our space in the CITIZEN! Watch our windows! Come and see us—you will be in good company.

This is a time for bargains!

The American Fork Co-op IS THE PLACE FOR BARGAINS

Our SHOES, RUBBERS, FELTS, GERMAN SOLES, in fact, everything that the heart desires to clothe and feed the human family.

Men's Overshoes, worth $2.75, for.....$2.25
Men's One-Buckle Overshoes, worth $1.65, for.....$1.27
Men's First Grade Rubbers, worth $1.00, for.....80c
Gum Boots, worth $4.00, for.....$3.50
Children's Shoes, worth $2.00, for.....$1.00
Girls' Shoes, worth $2.25, for.....$1.35
Boys' Shoes, worth $2.00 to $3.00, for.....$1.49
20 per cent off on Men's and Boys' Sweaters.
Men's Wool Undershirts, worth $3.00, for.....50c
Men's Canvas Gloves, worth 10c, for.....5c
Wool Gloves for Men, worth 50c, for.....35c

REMEMBER THE PLACE—THE PEOPLE'S STORE

Am. Fork Co-op

The Misses Vera Buckley and Isabel Lewis of Salt Lake were the guests of Miss Annie Larson Sunday and Monday.

Word came from the Pacific mine in American Fork Canyon last Sunday that there was between seven and eight feet of snow there.

Mrs. W. W. Southworth of Salt Lake and Mrs. Walter Needham of Provo were the guests of Mrs. Will Chipman the latter part of the week.

For monuments and fine cemetery work see A. Bradder, Lehi. 30-11

The many friends of Mrs. Robert Wagstaff will be pleased to hear that she is convalescing and able to be around.

Mrs. Hannah Rhodes left for Eureka Wednesday, on account of the severe illness of the baby of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rife.

People giving parties should try our after-dinner mints. Sanitary Meat & Grocery.

The sixth and seventh grades of the public schools, accompanied by their teachers, Miss Jane MacPherson, I. L. Pratt, Ray Nichols and John Sablin, enjoyed an especial treat Friday evening in the form of a bob-sleigh ride.

Messrs. Will Hansen, Earl Varney, Niels Nelson, Vern Manwill, Ernest Chadwick, Jack Crookston, Dr. Huchel and Roy Greenwood went on a rabbit-hunting expedition to Cedar Valley the first of the week and brought back numerous "bunnies" to prove the success of the trip.

Among the American Fork people who went to Spanish Fork Friday evening to attend the Creer family reunion were: Messrs. and Mesdames J. R. Hindley, W. E. Robinson, J. E. Buckwalter, Thomas Finns, Ellery Binns, John A. Singleton, Isaac Binns, Mrs. Sarah Chipman, Mrs. John Binns, Mrs. John H. Singleton, Mrs. Dell Singleton, and the Misses Liza Hindley, Nell Buckwalter and Bernell Singleton.

Call Phone EIGHT-0 where the flowers grow for choice cut flowers, funeral designs, etc. We give you the best stock and the most for your money—Provo Greenhouse Co. 6-11 We pay telephone calls.

AMERICAN FORK
BAND DANCE

at Smuin's Academy

Tuesday, Jan. 25th.

BIG CROWD COMING

STAY AT HOME.

You'll STAY ALONE

Mrs. J. L. Firmage and little son, Harold, were Salt Lake visitors Sunday.

Will Moyle returned to Logan the first of the week, after visiting his family here a few days.

Our loose sweet pickles are delicious. Sanitary meat & grocery.

The American Fork and Lehi eighth grades played a game of basketball last Friday. The score was 20 to 10 in favor of American Fork.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Andrews of Salt Lake visited friends and relatives here Wednesday.

Charles Gaisford returned home Tuesday, after a month's absence, spent in Tooele.

Mrs. C. D. Hanks went to Spanish Fork early in the week for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Kelbard.

Mrs. W. D. Edmonds entertained sixteen of her lady friends at a Kensington Wednesday afternoon. The time was spent in sewing and chat, followed by a delicious luncheon.

E. M. W. Jones entertained the members of the high school minstrel organization Thursday night. Games and music were the features of the evening, and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Loretta Jennings of Twin Falls, Ida., is here visiting friends and relatives. Her son, Sterling, will join his mother here today.

AUTO CONTEST FLOURISHING

Help your friend win the automobile by trading at The Briggs Pharmacy for everything you need in the drug line.

Following is the standing of the candidates:

No. 1.....162,195	No. 31.....116,040
No. 2.....111,760	No. 32.....105,720
No. 3.....110,420	No. 33.....112,420
No. 4.....94,638	No. 34.....113,040
No. 5.....153,235	No. 35.....155,855
No. 6.....99,000	No. 36.....104,550
No. 7.....111,500	No. 37.....113,025
No. 8.....116,375	No. 38.....156,070
No. 9.....118,220	No. 39.....104,270
No. 10.....116,335	No. 40.....106,700
No. 11.....138,150	No. 41.....16,100
No. 12.....125,290	No. 42.....120,325
No. 13.....130,016	No. 43.....106,200
No. 14.....111,225	No. 44.....99,300
No. 15.....110,325	No. 45.....100,500
No. 16.....130,335	No. 46.....109,750
No. 17.....136,915	No. 47.....109,100
No. 18.....121,099	No. 48.....106,975
No. 19.....124,550	No. 49.....127,230
No. 20.....110,650	No. 50.....102,040
No. 21.....116,345	No. 51.....93,400
No. 22.....29,725	No. 52.....5,000
No. 23.....112,620	No. 53.....104,100
No. 24.....36,500	No. 54.....102,400
No. 25.....111,375	No. 55.....120,480
No. 26.....116,805	No. 56.....122,115
No. 27.....112,500	No. 57.....147,910
No. 28.....122,245	No. 58.....173,055
No. 29.....113,345	No. 59.....5,000
No. 30.....147,190

More and more farmers are beginning to appreciate the benefits of housing stock and implements from inclement weather.

Housing stock means better selling prices.

Housing machinery adds years of usefulness to its life.

Good farm equipment is a paying investment only when well cared for.

And the trouble of planning and building suitable sheds is almost nothing now.

Our "Customers-Aid" Plans simplify the job for you and your carpenter.

BONNEVILLE LUMBER CO.
Geo. E. Merrill Co. and Associates

JOHN HUNTER, Manager, American Fork, Utah.